

From a Dunsfold resident's window

The subject of the 'attack' is Sedum spectabile
sometimes referred to as the ice plant.
On the day of the 'invasion' - early afternoon on 25 August 2002;
the flower heads were just beginning to open

